Chancery Causes: Parilee Crider vs. Luke Crider

Thomas, W. H.

CA - Divorce
T - Vices

To the Hon. H. A. W. Skeen Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia,

Your oratrix Parilee, the wife of Luke Bridger, complaining, sheweth unto the Court:

That on the day of 18- she was married to the said Luke Bridger, and is now years old. During all that time ~~time~~ she has been unto her said husband a faithful and devoted wife.

That she is now, and has been for more than twelve months next preceding the the institution of this suit, a citizen of this State.

But your oratrix avers that her said husband has so far forgotten, and so grossly disregarded his duty to his Country and to your oratrix that he has been found guilty of the crime of grand larceny, and other infamous offences, and on the day of 185- he was sentenced to confinement in the Penitentiary of the State of Kentucky for the said larceny.

And your oratrix further avers that she has not cohabited with him since his said sentence to confinement in the penitentiary aforesaid. Your oratrix further avers that he has also wilfully abandoned her for three years.

In consideration whereof, and forasmuch as your oratrix is remediless save in a Court of equity, she prays that the said Luke Bridger may be made a defendant to this bill, and be required to answer the same, but not on oath, the oath being hereby waived; that proper process issue; that your oratrix be granted a divorce a vinculo matrimonii, and that all such other ~~and~~ further ^{and general} relief be granted your oratrix as in the premises may be just-and right, and your oratrix will ever pray, etc.

Parilee Lorider
vs Luke Lorider } In Chancery.

This cause came on this 4 day of June 1900, to be heard upon the plaintiffs bill and the depositions filed therewith, and the defendant failing to appear to answer or demur, and it appearing ^{to the court} that said defendant had been given proper and legal notice according to the statute in cases of non residents, ^{and provided} enacted by the general assembly.
It is therefore adjudged ordered and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted and existing between the said Parilee Lorider and Luke Lorider, be, and is hereby dissolved and annulled, and that the ^{said} plaintiff recover of the said defendant her costs in this cause expended. And this cause is stricken from the docket.

The depositions of A. J. Witt and J. C. Witt, taken before me, W. T. Orr a justice of the peace for the County of Lee and State of Virginia, at the office of J. C. Noel in Pennington Gap in said County of Lee, on the 2nd day of June 1900 to be read in evidence in behalf of the plaintiff in a certain suit depending in the Circuit Court of Lee County, wherein Parlee Crider is plaintiff and Luke Crider is defendant Present.

J. C. Noel atty for plaintiff.

Simpson Thomas a witness of lawful age being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am 29 years old, and am a farmer by occupation and reside in Lee County. I am acquainted with both Parlee Crider and Luke Crider, the plaintiff and defendant in this cause. I have known the plaintiff since she was a small child, and the defendant for twelve years or more. I have known them both ever since they were married to each other.

I know that since the plaintiff and defendant were married, the ~~plaintiff~~ defendant was convicted of the crime Larceny and sentenced to confinement in the Penitentiary of Kentucky. The defendant has told me since his sentence conviction, that he served out his sentence, in the penitentiary. He was sentenced to be confined in the penitentiary for a period of twelve months.

I know also that he wilfully abandoned her, more than three years ago, and that he has not lived with her since.

Simpson Thomas

A. J. Witt, another witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and says. I am 53 years old, am a farmer, and reside in Lee County Virginia.

I am acquainted with both of the parties, ^{her} I have known the plaintiff from ~~their~~ infancy, and the defendant for several years.

They were married ^{to each other} together on 26 day of Feb. 1894. Since that time the defendant was convicted of larceny and sentenced to the penitentiary of Kentucky, for one year and I have heard, served out his time.

The plaintiff has not cohabited with him since his conviction.

I know also that since their marriage the defendant Luke Brider, wilfully abandoned the plaintiff, Parilee Brider, and that the abandonment has continued through a period of more than 3 years.

A. J. Witt, sr

I W. T. Orr, a Justice of the Peace for the County of Lee and State of Virginia, do hereby certify that

1 the foregoing depositions of Simpson 2 Thomas and R. J. Witt were duly taken 3 sworn to and subscribed before me
